Meditsiiniuudised

Medical News is a newspaper for the Estonian health system. In the paper published twice a month, we reflect the news concerning the current policy of the Estonian health care, domestic and foreign medical and specialty news. In addition, we analyse the topical problems of the medical field, introduce interesting people, intermedate the positions of opinion-formers and share practical information necessary for the work of the medical staff.

Medical News aimed at doctors and pharmacists is published in A3 format, on a white paper and percurrently colourful.
